Azzurrini celebrate after last U20 Six Nations win in Edinburgh

Edoardo Todaro is tackled by Josh Bellamy of England during the U20 Six Nations 2025 match between England and Italy

FIR'S PRESIDENT GREETINGS

Welcoming the World Rugby U20 Championship "Italy 2025" is a source of great pride and responsibility for the Federazione Italiana Rugby. For the third time, our country has the honour of hosting this prestigious global event, welcoming the future stars of international rugby and reaffirming our partnership with World Rugby in promoting the growth and development of the game worldwide.

Together with the local communities of Viadana, Calvisano, Rovigo, and Verona, we have built an event that combines tradition and future, passion and expertise, with the aim of offering athletes, fans and the entire Italian rugby movement an unforgettable experience, bringing top-level rugby back to our territories.

This World Championship is also a unique opportunity to support and accompany the players of our Italy U20 National Team, guided by Roberto Santamaria, on their path of growth. These young Azzurrini represent both the present and the future of Italian rugby: talented players who have grown up in clubs across the country, ready to take the field with pride, ambition, and a strong sense of belonging. It will be the home crowd, with its warmth and passion, to drive them forward in the challenges ahead against some of the strongest rugby pathways in the world.

Alongside the matches, each host city will celebrate the Championship with dedicated rugby festivals, bringing the community together through sport, music, culture, and entertainment. These festivals are not just celebrations - they are a bridge to the future, designed to inspire young people, generate participation, and leave a lasting legacy for the next generations of players and fans.

As President, but above all as a lifelong rugby enthusiast, I wish the staff and players of the Italy U20 team to find in this competition all the rewards they have been working for through their commitment and their pride in wearing the Azzurri jersey.

Thanks to the collaboration with Rai, Sky, and The Rugby Channel, for the first time ever, the entire tournament will be broadcast live in Italy. This unprecedented coverage will allow us to showcase the talent of these young athletes to a wide audience, offering flexible, comprehensive coverage tailored to the needs of every rugby supporter.

Now, all that remains is to await the start of the World Rugby U20 Championship, certain that it will deliver intensity, excitement, and world-class rugby.

Welcome to Italy. Welcome to the future of rugby.

Andrea Duodo (FIR President)
